BAKAID TANZANIA

BAK-AIDS was established in 2004 under the National Muslim Council of Tanzania (BAKWATA), which itself was registered in 1968 under the Societies Ordinance of 1954 (Reg. No. SO.NO.5512). The organization created to support in national efforts in addressing socio-economic development and emerging health issues. BAK-AIDS coordinates strategic planning, training, implementation, and evaluation of community service interventions across all regions of mainland Tanzania.

In accordance with the amendments to the Non-Governmental Organization Act No. 24 of 2002, revised by the Miscellaneous Amendments Act of 2019, BAKWATA officially registered BAK-AIDS as BAKAID Tanzania under the Non-Governmental Organizations Act in 2021 (Registration No. 00NGO/R/1805). BAKAID envisions a healthier life for underprivileged children, youth, men, and women.

The mission of BAKAID is to develop and implement innovative community-based strategies that provide quality and accessible socio-economic services through strong collaboration with stakeholders. This approach ensures sustainable operations and a dynamic framework for quality service delivery.
